AFCEA RECOGNIZES CENTECH® FOR LONG TERM SUPPORT OF EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Falls Church, Virginia, July 1, 2013 – During a luncheon held on June 18, 2013 in Montgomery, Alabama, the Montgomery Chapter of the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) recognized THE CENTECH GROUP, Inc (CENTECH) and its Chairman of the Board, Fernando V. Galaviz, for continuous support toward their Educational Foundation since the Chapter's inception in 2001.

Mr. Galaviz received recognition at the President's Luncheon held by the Montgomery AFCEA Chapter Educational Foundation. During the event, Mr. Galaviz was presented a beautiful engraved plaque expressing the organization's deepest gratitude and thanks for CENTECH's support of the scholarship program including donations totaling over $100,000 since the Chapter's inception.

In addition, Mr. Galaviz was recognized at another AFCEA luncheon held in connection with the annual Montgomery Information Technology (IT) Summit (MITS) conference. MITS highlights up-to-the-minute trends in U.S. Air Force programs and technology, bringing in the best and brightest U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) and industry leaders to inform attendees of the current state of IT and its use within the U.S. Air Force, and then close the loop by pointing out future growth areas and newly developing business opportunities for industry participants.

“CENTECH truly believes in the work that AFCEA does and in supporting their efforts to provide scholarships to those deserving individuals who are the next generation's brightest minds," said Galaviz.

Established in 1946, AFCEA provides an ethical forum for advancing professional knowledge and relationships in the fields of communications, IT, intelligence, and global security. With over 33,000 members on four continents, AFCEA is comprised of political, military, education and industry leaders. There are 140 different AFCEA chapters in over 30 countries.

The Montgomery AFCEA Chapter is part of the Mid-South Region of AFCEA International and headed by Regional Vice President, Tom Gwaltney. Members work to create a positive impact in the Montgomery area by raising funds that are used for individual scholarships and internships, technology grants to local schools, and investment in regional initiatives to help build a world class technical workforce. They also promote networking opportunities with Montgomery industry, military and academic leaders at our events and Chapter meetings.
